

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM—NO PHOSPHATE

Dakota County Herald

JOHN H. REAM, PUBLISHER

Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Year.

Telephone No. 48.

Official Paper of Dakota County

Dakota County

Agricultural Short Course

INSTRUCTORS

Men's Section

Beef Cattle and Hogs... K. F. Warner

Motors and Automobiles... I. D. Wood

Rope Work... A. H. Beckhoff

Women's Section

Home Building and Management, Sewing and Textiles... Aural Scott

Food Selection, Preparation and Service... Mary Rokahr

PROGRAM

Men's Section

Tuesday, Dec. 19—

9 00 a. m. Rope Work

10 00 a. m. Beef Cattle and General Farming

10 40 a. m. Engine Rules and How Used

11 20 a. m. The Place of Hogs on the Farm

1 00 p. m. Judging Beef Cattle

2 00 p. m. Trouble in Starting Engines and Developing Power

3 p. m. Selection of Brood Sow

Wednesday, Dec. 20—

9 00 a. m. Rope Work

10 00 a. m. Buying at the Stock Yards

10 40 a. m. Lubricating, Ignition and Cooling Systems

11 20 a. m. Feeding the Dry Sow

1 00 p. m. Care of the Breeding Sow

2 00 p. m. Cylinder, Valve and other Troubles

3 00 p. m. The Sow and Her Litter

Thursday, Dec. 21—

9 00 a. m. Rope Work

10 10 a. m. Feeding the Calf

10 40 a. m. Tractors—Types and Cost

11 20 a. m. The Self Feeder for Hogs

1 00 p. m. Valve Grinding, Babbling, Etc.

2 00 p. m. Judging Contests—Cattle and Hogs

Friday, Dec. 22—

9 00 a. m. Rope Work

10 00 a. m. Feeding for Beef

10 40 a. m. Automobiles—Care and Cost

11 20 a. m. Fattening and Marketing Hogs

1 00 p. m. Black Leg, Tuberculosis

1 40 p. m. Reception by Women's Section

Women's Section

Tuesday—

9 00 a. m. The Home and the Home-Maker

9 45 a. m. How Foods are Used

10 00 a. m. Demonstration—Preparing Winter Vegetables

1 30 p. m. The Clothing Problem. Conditions in the Clothing Industry

3 00 p. m. Demonstration—Variety in the use of Starchy foods

Wednesday—

9 00 a. m. Points in House Planning

9 45 a. m. Bread, the Staff of Life

10 15 a. m. Demonstration—Breads and Breadmaking

1 20 p. m. Healthful Clothing

2 30 p. m. Demonstration—Protein Foods Other than Meats

Friday—

9 00 a. m. Home Economics Literature

9 45 a. m. Conserving the Food Supply of the Farm

10 15 a. m. Demonstration—Simple and Easy Ways of Preserving Food

1 30 p. m. Every Day Table Service

2 00 p. m. The Relation of the Homemaker to the Community

3 00 p. m. Reception

EVENING PROGRAM

Monday, Dec. 18—

8 p. m. Address "The Real Rural Problem"....C. W. Pugsley

Wednesday, Dec. 20—

8 p. m. "Home Superstitions".... Mary Rokahr

"History of Farm Machinery"....I. D. Wood

Further details will be given next week.

CORRESPONDENCE

HUBBARD

Hans Jensen has been husking corn for Carl Sorensen.

Roy Armour and wife Sundayed with the Glen Armour family.

Clara, Grace and Louis Wilkins motored to Sioux City last week.

Ludwig and Rudolph Luessbrink have been helping F. Kipper finish corn husking.

We still have a big supply of husking mittens. Carl Anderson.

Luther Martin and family spent a couple of days last week at the Perry Ping home.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder ate Thanksgiving dinner at the Leo Biedde home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sorensen entertained several families at dinner last Sunday.

The L. Rockwell family were Sunday diners at the L. E. Priest home.

Leggings in all sizes at Carl Anderson's.

Fred Wilkins was a Sunday visitor at the W. Kuhl home.

Ingri Hansen has been spending the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Adolph Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Foote enjoyed a visit from relatives from Canada last week.

John Hayes shipped two cars of sheep to Omaha last week.

Louis Knudsen and family Sundayed at the H. C. Rasmussen home.

Have you seen our line of wool sweaters—in all sizes, grades and prices. Carl Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bogg, son Albert and daughter, Lillian, motored to Sioux City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maurice and daughter were shoppers in the city last week.

Ray Tarpley, who has been working in Plum Grove for some time past, left last week for his home in Marysville, Mo.

The Social club met with Mrs. J. C. Smith last week.

Ball Band overshoes and rubbers in all sizes at Carl Anderson's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Nelsen, Aksel Rasmussen and Christine Beck were theatre goers Sunday evening in Sioux City.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson and son visited friends here Sunday evening.

Christine Miller was taken to the hospital in Sioux City last week. She has been a sufferer for a long time and no hope is held out for recovery.

Chas. Young, proprietor of the East Side saloon, died at his home here last Sunday.

We want your butter and eggs and will pay the highest price the market will afford. Carl Anderson.

Mrs. A. Andersen visited several days last week at the home of her daughter in South Sioux City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Geertz were Sioux City shoppers Monday.

Rope Work Feeding the Calf Tractors—Types and Cost The Self Feeder for Hogs

Valve Grinding, Babbling, Etc.

Judging Contests—Cattle and Hogs

Friday, Dec. 22—

9 00 a. m. Rope Work

10 00 a. m. Feeding for Beef

10 40 a. m. Automobiles—Care and Cost

11 20 a. m. Fattening and Marketing Hogs

1 00 p. m. Black Leg, Tuberculosis

1 40 p. m. Reception by Women's Section

Women's Section

Tuesday—

9 00 a. m. The Home and the Home-Maker

9 45 a. m. How Foods are Used

10 00 a. m. Demonstration—Preparing Winter Vegetables

1 30 p. m. The Clothing Problem. Conditions in the Clothing Industry

3 00 p. m. Demonstration—Variety in the use of Starchy foods

Wednesday—

9 00 a. m. Points in House Planning

9 45 a. m. Bread, the Staff of Life

10 15 a. m. Demonstration—Breads and Breadmaking

1 20 p. m. Healthful Clothing

2 30 p. m. Demonstration—Protein Foods Other than Meats

Friday—

9 00 a. m. Home Economics Literature

9 45 a. m. Conserving the Food Supply of the Farm

10 15 a. m. Demonstration—Simple and Easy Ways of Preserving Food

1 30 p. m. Every Day Table Service

2 00 p. m. The Relation of the Homemaker to the Community

3 00 p. m. Reception

EVENING PROGRAM

Monday, Dec. 18—

8 p. m. Address "The Real Rural Problem"....C. W. Pugsley

Wednesday, Dec. 20—

8 p. m. "Home Superstitions".... Mary Rokahr

"History of Farm Machinery"....I. D. Wood

Further details will be given next week.

the home of his sister, Mrs. Jane Welker.

Mrs. Charles Fueston was an incoming passenger from the north Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Odell is on the sick list.

Geo. Thacker and two small children spent Thanksgiving with his son, Claud, and family.

Sidney Skidmore and wife visited their parents, Geo. Skidmore and wife, Thanksgiving.

Two hundred and thirty-five money orders were issued in the Homer post office during the month of November.

Chas. Holsworth and family were Sioux City shoppers Friday.

Rev. Pendell and wife entertained their son and his family Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Lon McEntaffer and daughter, Mrs. Pennington, were Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mrs. McEntaffer's parents, Coon Thorn and wife.

Mrs. Myron Bates and children departed Wednesday for Coon Rapids, Ia., to join her husband who is working there. They expect to remain for some time.

James Allaway, sr., dined Thanksgiving at the James Allaway, jr., home.

Will Rockwell and family ate Thanksgiving dinner with the Will Leamer family.

Tom Allaway motored to Sioux City Thanksgiving accompanied by H. N. Wagner.

Lynn Brown, of Rock Rapids, Ia., came home Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his father, S. A. Brown, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Weander, of Sioux City, were Thanksgiving guests at the Chas. Davis home. Mrs. Davis, who had been visiting in Sioux City, accompanied them.

Nois Bliven, who has been visiting relatives in South Sioux and elsewhere for the last few weeks, came back to Homer recently and will visit his son Art and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fogel, of Morningside, Ia., were Thanksgiving guests at the Mrs. Jane Welker home.

Miss Nadine Shepardson accompanied her uncle, Lynn Brown, to Sioux City Saturday.

Frank Bennett went to Sioux Falls, S. D., Sunday, to be at the bedside of a brother who is not expected to live.

Charles Bates and wife were incoming passengers from the north Monday.

Mrs. Henry Rasmussen, of Sioux City, is a visitor with Mrs. Sadie Grimstead.

Mrs. Pendell and little granddaughter, Fern Pendell, went to Sioux City Monday.

Ed Norris and wife, from Winnebago, were Homer visitors Monday.

Ed Ward, of Bronson, Ia., was a guest at the Mrs. Rachel Kinnear home a couple of days this week. He lived in Homer about thirteen years ago.

Mrs. Frank Balingier, of Illinois, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. K. Zentmire left Monday to visit relatives in other points in Nebraska.

R. L. Smith was a Sioux City visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mart Mansfield, of Winnebago, was a Homer visitor Saturday.

Turner Ross came home Saturday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Sol Smith and daughter, Hazel, of Emerson, visited several days at the Glen Smith home.

Charles Holsworth and family were Sioux City shoppers Friday.

Mrs. H. A. Monroe spent the week-end in Homer.

E. S. Redden returned Sunday from Fort Dodge, Ia., where he visited relatives.

Fern Pendell, of Morningside, Ia., spent the week-end with her grandparents, Rev. Pendell and wife.

Miss Carrie Hansen was a Sioux City visitor from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Pennington, who has been visiting her parents, Lon McEntaffer and wife, returned to her home in Hull, Ia., Monday. Mr. Pennington came Sunday to accompany her home.

Mrs. Alice Bolster and daughter, Helen, were entertained at the S. A. Combs home Thanksgiving.

Miss Nellie Miller, of Sheldon, Ia., spent Thanksgiving with friends in Homer.

Audrey Allaway and wife were Sioux City shoppers Friday.

Mrs. Gilbert Hughes and daughter, Miss Bessie, shopped in Sioux City Friday.

Geo. Blessing and family autoed to Sioux City Friday.

Mrs. Will Broyhill and Mabel visited in Sioux City Friday.

Peg o' the Ring arrived at the Rialto and a full house greeted her twice Friday night with wild hand claps. She will try to keep her regular appointments after this.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris were guests at the Alfred Harris home Thanksgiving. Mrs. Alfred Harris accompanied them home and remained until Sunday.

Tony Larsen, of Omaha, spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends in and near Homer.

Norval Church spent Thanksgiving at Wayne, Neb., with friends.

Earl Rasdal and wife, Clarence Rasdal and lady friend, were Thanksgiving visitors at the H. C. Rasdal home.

giving visitors at the H. C. Rasdal home.

Lewie Rockwell and family were guests at the home of their son, George, and family, Thanksgiving.

Audrey Allaway and wife motored to Dakota City Thanksgiving and spent the day with Mrs. Altemus, mother of Mrs. Allaway.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Monroe and family, Sherman McKinley and family and the Misses Gertrude and Mattie McKinley were dinner guests Thanksgiving at the B. McKinley home.

H. A. Monroe motored to Emerson Thanksgiving to see the Emerson-South Sioux foot ball game. He was accompanied by his two daughters and Mrs. McKinley and Miss Marjorie McKinley.

JACKSON.

Among the teachers home for the Thanksgiving vacation were the Misses Mary Clark and Frances McCormick, Herman, Neb.; Benetta Lamb, Spencer, Neb.

Grace Connelly returned to her home at Elk Point, S. D., Tuesday, after spending Thanksgiving in the Lee C. Kearney home.

The dance and basket supper at the opera house last Friday night was a great success, over eighty numbers being sold and all enjoyed a good time.

Dr. Magirl and wife spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Omaha. They were accompanied home by Pauline Gutton, who remained until Monday.

Mrs. Jas. Sutherland departed last Wednesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Collins, at Vinila, Okla. She expects to visit her brother, Rev. Fr. Leahy, at St. Louis before returning.

Mrs. S. C. Copeland departed for Perville, Ia., last week to visit relatives.

Joseph Marsh, wife and children, were Thanksgiving guests in the home of Mr. Marsh's parents in Sioux City last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rafferty and daughter, of Lake Crystal, Minn., spent Thanksgiving with the latter's father, Mr. Hiatt, here.

Mrs. Cleary, of Sioux City, visited her daughter, Marian, at the academy last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Fennell is enjoying a visit from her father, J. V. Swift, of Denver, Col.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Hine, November 30, 1916, a son.

Mrs. J. P. McEwen and children, of Sioux City, spent over Sunday in the home of her brother, Thos. Sullivan.

Postmaster Timlin, of Hubbard, was in town Tuesday.

Edna Swanson, Ver-Haar contralto, will appear in concert at St. Catharine academy Friday evening.

Dr. John Sullivan and wife, of Omaha, were guests in the Joe Sullivan home last week.

Walter Zulauf, who is studying medicine at the university at Lincoln, returned to his school work Sunday, accompanied by his father, in the latter's car.

Jack Riley, sr., of Verdigris, Neb., and Jack, jr., of Wayne, were week-end guests in the Wm. Riley home.

Miss Biderson, of Sioux City, was a Thanksgiving guest of the Misses Margaret and Mary Waters.

Mrs. Henry Francisco and daughters and son, Freeman, autoed from Royal, Neb., last Friday and while looking after their farm here were guests in the Geo. Baney home. They returned to Royal Tuesday.

Mary Christensen is attending the Dana college at Blair, Neb.

E. J. O'Leary, who operated a tansorial parlor here the past year, packed up his belongings here the last week and returned to Omaha.

During the month of November the money order business at the Jackson post office showed an increase over last year. There was 130 orders issued, amounting to

(Continued on page 5)

Public Sale!

Have sold my farm, and will sell at public auction on the Charley Breslin place, 5 miles south of Ponca, 4 miles west of Willis, 4 miles northwest of Goodwin, 3 1/2 miles northeast of Waterbury, 1 mile north of Joe Twohigs, on

Wednesday, Dec. 13, 1916

Sale starts at 1 o'clock. Free Lunch will be served.

10 Head of Good Horses

21 Head of Cattle

31 Head of Shoats

2500 Bushels of Corn.

10 Tons Alfalfa Hay.

10 Tons Prairie Hay.

65 Acre Stalk Field.

Farm Machinery.

Household Goods.

Usual Terms Given to Purchasers.

W. O. TUTTLE

Cols. Stewart & Thompson, Auctioneers.

George Smith, Clerk.

Down to the telephone again

A telephone extension will solve the problem of those health-destroying trips up and down the stairs each day.

RESIDENCE EXTENSION TELEPHONE RATES.

75 cents a month—With extra bell.

50 cents a month—Without a bell.

NEBRASKA TELEPHONE